WHO WE ARE

We are a family-owned company from Guatemala, proudly growing, packing, exporting, and distributing premium fruits and vegetables. From our fertile highlands to your shelves, we deliver freshness, reliability, and quality you can trust. As growers and packers, we nurture every crop with passion. As exporters and distributors in the U.S. and Canada, we guarantee that our produce arrives fresh and ready for your business—season

“Freshness and Quality, Every Season”

TAYLORED SOLUTIONS

We offer private label packaging and the flexibility to customize harvests to match your commercial plans. Our production adapts to your brand, specifications, and timelines, helping you build the right product mix for your customers.

STRATEGIC DISTRIBUTION HUB

Our products are stored in cold storage facilities in Miami, Florida, and McAllen, Texas, strategically positioned for fast and efficient distribution across the U.S. These hubs ensure reliable, temperature-controlled handling and quick access to key markets, keeping our produce fresh and ready when you need it.
